Another great example of a Ford fiesta Style with low mileage having only covered 47,750 miles. It's in great condition both inside and out and comes with a regular SERVICE RECORD This is a really ECONOMICAL small hatchback that is CHEAP to insure and returns on average 49.6MPG. Would be ideal as a first time drivers car or a second car in a family with its respectable cabin space and boot area. The Fiesta comes with many features including POWER STEERING and AUX INPUT.
